Creditors and third parties with claims on moveable goods in the companies' possession, may file their proof of claim in bankruptcy petition, written in Italian, exclusively with the Court of Padua within the deadlines shown above. Any requests filed after such deadlines will be deemed late, all relevant obligations and duties to apply.

In order to allow the Extraordinary Commissioner to conduct an accurate review and ask for any further documentation or clarifications necessary, all creditors are asked to file their requests in good time.

The request for proof of debt shall contain a precise explanation of the reasons, amount of the credit and any pre-emption rights, providing documents (individually translated into Italian, under penalty of rejection because unusable) in accordance with the tax law in force. In particular:

- Craftsmen must provide a copy of the last VAT and income tax returns, copy of the registration book and certificate of registration with the Chamber of Commerce for Industries, Agriculture and Handicraft;
- Professional persons must enclose their pro forma invoices approved by the professional Bar of Association or liquidated by the Judicial Authorities;
- In case of credit of a supplier of goods, the request must be accompanied by a transport document and the original of the invoice, or a copy thereof ;
- Creditors who are employees must show the amounts due for past salaries, severance pay and failure to give notice and enclose copy of their employment card.

Credits related to interest, if due, shall be calculated and specified in an appropriate table.

Banks shall supply the following documents and information regarding their relationships with the above indicated companies:

- a) Copy of the statements of account for the two years preceding the notice of insolvency;
- b) Credit lines granted, specifying the limits and terms of use, enclosing a copy of the loan book;
- c) Any notice of revocation of the credit lines granted;
- d) The original or a certified copy of directly enforceable deeds, unpaid cheques, cash orders and bills in general proving credits must be enclosed.

All those in possession of goods, equipment, or anything else belonging to the above mentioned companies in Extraordinary Administration must immediately inform the Extraordinary Commissioner, providing a detailed list thereof.

Extraordinary Commissioner
Dr. Gianluca Vidal
